

Q: Anyone who participated in the Dan O'Neill webinar on Wednesday 16 September will remember Dan's necklace below with two very different and distinct animal teeth. Could you tell what animal they came from?

Find out the answer below the picture:

A: The small tooth on the right is from a sloth and the larger tooth on the left is from a black caiman, a species of large crocodilian.