

LOCAL PLACES DOING GOOD

CHECK OUT LOCAL PLACES GOING THE EXTRA MILE TO REDUCE THEIR (AND YOUR) IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT...

BELFAST

- JACK Coffee Bar: gives 15% discount if you use a Covet Clr reusable mugs. Also, 10% discount if you arrive by bike!
- Kaffe-O: uses compostable alternatives to single-use plastic items
- Root & Branch Coffee: use fully compostable retail coffee bags; give 10% discount for reusable cups. They compost their roaster chaff (dried skin on a coffee bean, the husk, which comes off during the roasting process). Use eco-friendly cleaning products!
- The Pocket Coffee: promote bring your own containers for your take away food
- Established Coffee: gives 20p discount for customers using a reusable cup
- The MAC Belfast: gives 30p discount if you use a reusable cup
- Snax in the City: gives 25p off if you use your reusable cup
- Inns Market: monthly farmers market offers household & dried goods refills. Bring your own containers!
- Refill Quarter: are Belfast's first dedicated zero waste shop providing packaging-free food, kitchen and bathroom items for refill. They also sell eco-friendly alternatives!
- Made in Belfast: use compostable straws instead of plastics in all of their restaurants
- Upperland Coffee Company: 20p discount when you use a reusable cup and all disposable cups and lids are fully compostable
- The National: no longer use plastic straws, spent coffee grounds are reused to produce their draft espresso martini & created a closed loop cocktail service to reduce food waste
- Farm Next Door: use recycled paper bags and cardboard boxes to pack loose produce and any damaged/waste packaging is recycled

BANGOR & HOLYWOOD

- Coffee Yard – has stopped using their plastic water cups and are actively encouraging customers to bring their own bottle and reusable cups. Discount given on coffee for BYO take away cup to help them cut down on non-recyclable waste
- The Red Berry – Coffee House & Eatery: gives 20p discount with your reusable cup
- Bangor parkrun encourage their runners to bring their own reusable mug to reduce their use of single-use plastic!

LOCAL PLACES DOING GOOD

CHECK OUT LOCAL PLACES GOING THE EXTRA MILE TO REDUCE THEIR (AND YOUR) IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT ..

DERRY/LONDONDERRY

- Eskimo Coffee: give 10% off anything that you bring your own container in for and also have a fill your own water bottle tap

NEWRY

- Finegan & Son: gives 40p off if you bring your own reusable mug

SAINTFIELD

- Millbank Farm: 'No Waste Station' in Farm Shop, where you can reuse your own containers for nuts, dried fruit and wholefoods.

PORTRUSH

- The Milk Hut @ Chestnutts' Farm: plastic free zero waste milk refill station

TEMPLEPATRICK

- Coleman's Garden Centre|Farm Shop|Cafe: have a wide range of foodstuffs and happy for you to bring your own food containers to transport your food

LARNE

- The Coffee Doc: give 10% off your hot drink when you buy their reusable coffee cup and your first cup with purchase is free

COMBER & NEWTOWNARDS

- Indie Fude: independent deli store, offers 20p discount on reusable cups and encourages people to bring their own food containers. Also offer a 'refill station' encouraging people to pop in and refill their water bottle for free. All hamper packaging is fully recyclable and all coffee cups/deli packaging is plant based and compostable!
- Earth Made: sustainability is at their core and they do not sell any single use plastic products. They also plant a tree in collaboration with One Tree Planted on every order!
- Millview Farm Vending: have a 24 hours plastic free zero waste milk & milkshake refill station!

LIVE
HERE
LOVE
HERE

LOCAL PLACES DOING GOOD

CHECK OUT LOCAL PLACES GOING THE EXTRA MILE TO REDUCE THEIR (AND YOUR) IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT ..

THROUGHOUT NI, IRELAND AND BEYOND

- National Trust: offer free drinking water in cafes, currently phasing out selling all single use plastics and have switched magazine wrapping to a compostable alternative
- Patisserie Valerie: gives 50p discount for using your own reusable cup
- Costa Coffee: recycle all takeaway drink cups regardless of the source and use paper straws instead of plastic.
- Sostrene Grene: packaging free loose-leaf tea available in pick'n'mix style boxes in store. these can be filled using paper bags or your own containers.
- SUKI Tea: all packaging is plastic free and their tea bags are completely natural and compostable
- M&S: gives 25p discount at their coffee bars. In their Abbeycentre store they offer a free water refill station and sell reusable bottles.
- Boots: replacing all plastic carrier bags with paper ones by the end of 2020 and donating the proceeds of these to BBC Children In Need
- Diageo: the bottling and packaging plant in East Belfast is using biodegradable packaging on Guinness brand drinks
- ground Espresso Bars: gives 50p discount if you bring your own cup
- SuperValu, Centra & Mace: use 100% compostable cups and offer 20p discount for those using reusable coffee cups
- Clements: gives an additional stamp on loyalty card if you bring your own cup
- Starbucks: give 25p discount for using your own reusable cup
- Caffè Nero: gives an additional stamp on loyalty card
- Greggs: gives 20p discount for using your own mug & if you buy Greggs' own reusable cup for £2 will also get their first hot drink free
- SOHO Coffee Co: gives 25p discount for using your own reusable cup
- Tim Hortons: gives 10p discount for using your own reusable cup

THESE ARE JUST A START. TELL US WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR LOCAL AREA AND WE CAN ADD THEM TO THE LIST!

